ACCESS STATEMENT

These digitized collections are accessible for purposes of education and research. We have indicated what we know about copyright and rights of privacy, publicity, or trademark. Due to the nature of archival collections, we are not always able to identify this information. We are eager to hear from any rights owners, so that we may obtain accurate information. Upon request, we will remove material from public view while we address a rights issue.

CONSTRAINTS STATEMENT

The Arizona Geological Survey does not claim to control all rights for all materials in its collection. These rights include, but are not limited to: copyright, privacy rights, and cultural protection rights. The User hereby assumes all responsibility for obtaining any rights to use the material in excess of "fair use."

The Survey makes no intellectual property claims to the products created by individual authors in the manuscript collections, except when the author deeded those rights to the Survey or when those authors were employed by the State of Arizona and created intellectual products as a function of their official duties. The Survey does maintain property rights to the physical and digital representations of the works.

QUALITY STATEMENT

The Arizona Geological Survey is not responsible for the accuracy of the records, information, or opinions that may be contained in the files. The Survey collects, catalogs, and archives data on mineral properties regardless of its views of the veracity or accuracy of those data.

MARK GEMMILL

A photograph of a torn, stained, and heavily marked piece of paper, possibly a document or envelope. The paper is yellowed and has various stamps and handwritten text. At the top, there is a stamp that says "RETURNED TO". Below that, there is a stamp that says "AMAZON". To the right of "AMAZON", there is a stamp that says "CHECKED". Below "CHECKED", there is a stamp that says "POSTAGE DUE". At the bottom, there is a stamp that says "1 CENTS". There is also a large handwritten "X" and some illegible markings. The paper appears to be a piece of evidence or a document related to the case.

A G R E E M E N T

AGREEMENT, made this ____ day of ____, 1930, between Benjamin C. Scott and W. C. Broadgate, parties of the first part of Cleator, Yavapai County, Arizona, and Joseph Chattuck of Los Angeles, California, second party.

WITNESSETH:

That for and in consideration of the sum of One ($1.00) Dollar, in hand paid by each of the parties to the other, the receipt whereof being hereby acknowledged by the parties, and in consideration of the performance by the parties of the covenants and agreements hereinafter set forth, it is agreed as follows:

1. First parties do hereby agree to sell, and second party does hereby agree to purchase, on the terms and conditions hereinafter stated, the mining property and mining claims hereinafter described.

2. The purchase price shall be the sum of Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars, to be paid by second party to first parties within ten years from the date of this agreement, with a minimum annual payment of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars.

3. The property covered by this agreement consists of four unpatented mining claims, situated in the Peck Mining District, Yavapai County, Arizona, the names of which, and books and pages, official records of said County and State, being as follows:

Name of Claim	Book of Mines	Pages
Feldspar No.1	135	196
Feldspar No.2	135	197
Feldspar No.3	135	198
Feldspar No.4	135	199

4. Upon the signing of this Agreement, second party shall be entitled to go into the possession of the said property during the life of this contract, and during such time he may work, operate, develop and improve said property, and mine and ship Feldspar and any and all ores he may properly extract therefrom; provided, however, that he shall pay to first parties a royalty of fifty (50%) cents per ton for each ton of Feldspar, and a royalty of ten (10%) per cent on the gross market price of any other ores or other materials shipped from said property; and said royalty payments shall be paid by second party to first parties not later than the month succeeding the month in which the ores or other materials are shipped, and all payments made by second party on account of royalties shall be applied by first parties upon the purchase price hereinabove mentioned.

Second party shall keep a true and accurate record of the production, reduction, and disposition of all Feldspar, ores and other materials taken from said property during the life of this contract, which record shall be open to the inspection of first parties.

5. Second party must commence work, under this agreement within 60 days of its date, and must do and perform not less than twenty (20) shifts of work per month.

6. During the life of this contract, second party shall do and perform the annual assessment work on said mining claims, without expense to first parties, and shall make and record the usual Affidavit that he has performed such work.

7. Second party will pay all taxes assessed against said property during the life of this contract.

8. Second party shall record, post and keep posted notices of non-liability on the part of the first parties in accordance with the laws of Arizona.

9. Second party shall acquire no interest in the property hereinabove described unless he shall pay the pur-not otherwise in default. If second party shall have made a payment or payments as herein provided for, and shall make default in the next succeeding payment, the sum or sums so paid by the second party shall be retained by first parties as rental for the use of said property and for liquidated damages for the breach of this contract by second party.

10. First parties may declare a forfeiture of this agreement by second party upon his breach of any of his covenants or agreements herein contained, and in the event a forfeiture is declared, second party shall at once surrender the possession of said property to first parties, and every part thereof in as good condition as when received, usual wear and tear accepted.

11. Upon complete performance of this contract by second party, first parties shall make, execute, and deliver to second party their deed conveying to second party the property hereinbefore described, subject only to the Paramount title of the United States.

12. Time is of the essence of this contract.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands the day and year first before written.
