Operations Planned

Number Claims, Title, etc. - 4 lode claims, Joe Ben, Ben Joe, Lucky Strike and Joe Ben Extension.
5 placer claims.

Description: Topography & Geography - The elevation is about 5000 ft. It is rugged about 1 mile east of Mt. Elliott and 1 mile north of Eugene Wash.

Mine Workings: Amt. & Condition - 1 shaft 30 ft. deep.

Location - 7 miles west of Humboldt.
Take old McCabe road out from Humboldt, follow to the Leland
Mine, then it is 1 mile south of the Leland.

Address - Camp Verde, Arizona
Humboldt, Arizona

Gen. Mgr.

Mill Supt.

Men Employed - One

Mill: Type & Cap.

Geology & Mineralization - Quartz, ledge between the granite and schist fissure vein, oxides.

Ore: Positive & Probable, Ore Dumps, Tailings -

Vein Width, Length, Value, etc. - On the claim where we have the shaft there is a 3 ft. ledge, and it crops up all across the adjoining claim. There is lots of it and will be easy mined. 2 claims assay $10.63 (average) One claim, which is only an assessment hole runs $13.90. It has a 40 ft. ledge. The placer runs $1.50 per yard.

Mine, Mill Equipment & Flow Sheet

Road Conditions, Route - There is an old road to the placer claims that can be traveled the year around, and a road within  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile of the lode claims. It is rough in places. Going west from Humboldt you take the first right hand road, go right by the Iron King mine. If in doubt get directed there to the Leland mine, then we are about 1 mile on south from the Leland.

Water Supply - Just enough well water for camp use.

Brief History

Special Problems, Reports Filed - The reason we have not worked the placer is it is dry and cannot develop the lode claims for lack of funds.

Remarks - We have done all the assessment work and have no record, that is all we have done. There will be about  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile road to build not very bad, some grading, mostly cutting brush, and if one can ship \$10 ore they could start right to shipping for there is a lot of it in sight and it runs an average of \$10.63 per ton. It was assayed at Mayer, Arizona.

If property for sale: Price, terms and address to negotiate - $5,000.
$5,000 cash will take it all, both placer and lode.
