Dear Bob & Pete,

Attached is a draft of the contract I have submitted to the Canadians. I have instructed them as I will you, please read it carefully, have your attorney review, and return to me with comments or approval.

In the contract, I have projected the payment schedule on a 15 year maximum payoff instead of 20 as was previous, and increased it terrifically.

These same people are interested in some small or medium sized gold mines. They will not rule out the possibility of silver. Please let me know if you have a line on some.

Thanks,
Doug

OH YES....

Please forward the BLM filings and map. I need all these numbers and map to complete the Exhibit "A". As you can see, I included the old exhibit to get the ball rolling.

IMPORTANT PROPERTY TAX INFORMATION

(MARICOPA COUNTY, ARIZONA)

New owners of property in Arizona are often confused by the time sequence of the property tax system. The following may help owners in their understanding of the system:

VALUE NOTIFICATION:

1. The Assessor will notify, between January 1 and March 1, all property owners at the last known address, of any increase in full cash value, assessed value, classification and assessment ratio of their property. If property owner does not receive a notice, he should contact the Assessor's office prior to March 10th. This is in card form showing the previous year's assessment, and the current year.
2. It is from this notice that protests must be filed through the Assessor's office by March 15th.

ANNUAL TAX STATEMENTS:

3. Although annual tax statements are named for the calendar year, they are not issued until the Fall of the same year; ie: 1976 statement issued October 1, 1976.
4. This tax may be paid in two halves.
 - a. The due date for the first half installment is September 1 (if no School Reduction is appropriated by the State Legislature) or October 1 (if a School Finance Reduction is appropriated). The first half installment is delinquent after November 1.
 - b. The second half tax is due March 1 of the following year, and is delinquent after May 1. Since the statement issued the previous Fall has two payment stubs, no separate notice is sent for the Spring installment.
5. Always check the property description on the tax statement with your records, to avoid paying on the wrong property. The Treasurer cannot be responsible for payment made on the wrong property.

PENALTIES:

6. The law does not recognize the failure to receive a tax statement as a reason for waiving penalties. The Treasurer must assess penalties on all delinquent payments at the rate of 10% per year, pro-rated monthly.

NEW OWNERSHIP:

7. Because of the "Assessment Notice" in paragraph (1) above, property purchased and recorded after November 1 of the previous year may not reflect the new owner's name on the subsequent tax statement.

If a tax statement has not been received by October 15, it is important that the new owner contact the Treasurer for this statement (262-3231) so that the tax does not become delinquent.

Att: Mr. Dick Hibbard

Dear Sir:

This letter is in reference to my letter of November 26, 1974 to Mr. William S. Hawgood, regarding the lease purchase agreement on the Redrock property.

I believe the purpose of retaining Mr. Hawgood's firm was to simplify the agreement and use someone here familiar with, and to assure all Arizona and U. S. A. Mining Laws and statutes would be adhered to. I find the contrary to be the case.

As for the agreement, there is no need to have a rental stipulation for $10.00 per month from this date until January 31, 1975. This just complicates matters.

We have agreed with you that the first lease purchase payment is due February 1, 1975, and that if the contracts have been signed and in hand by either party, the time period (one or two weeks) will be given for finalizing.

My request to Mr. Hawgood at our meeting November 27, 1974 is to condense his agreement, eliminate the $10.00 monthly rental and the following: (refer to letter of November 26, 1975)
