ACCESS STATEMENT

These digitized collections are accessible for purposes of education and research. We have indicated what we know about copyright and rights of privacy, publicity, or trademark. Due to the nature of archival collections, we are not always able to identify this information. We are eager to hear from any rights owners, so that we may obtain accurate information. Upon request, we will remove material from public view while we address a rights issue.

CONSTRAINTS STATEMENT

The Arizona Geological Survey does not claim to control all rights for all materials in its collection. These rights include, but are not limited to: copyright, privacy rights, and cultural protection rights. The User hereby assumes all responsibility for obtaining any rights to use the material in excess of "fair use."

The Survey makes no intellectual property claims to the products created by individual authors in the manuscript collections, except when the author deeded those rights to the Survey or when those authors were employed by the State of Arizona and created intellectual products as a function of their official duties. The Survey does maintain property rights to the physical and digital representations of the works.

QUALITY STATEMENT

The Arizona Geological Survey is not responsible for the accuracy of the records, information, or opinions that may be contained in the files. The Survey collects, catalogs, and archives data on mineral properties regardless of its views of the veracity or accuracy of those data.

Dear Mr. DiSANTO:

Thank you for your letter of April 25. It does not appear that we can include an examination of your Idaho properties as a part of our 1973 summer field program.

We appreciate your interest to date, and I am hoping we will be able to revive our interest in your properties next year.

Very truly yours,

Paul I. Eimon

IDAHO PROPERTIES

Dear Mr. Eimon:

In line with your note of December 21, 1972 on properties in Idaho, I am attaching copies of additional material which may be of interest. Will you please advise at this time when you will visit the property if the data are of sufficient interest.

Very truly yours,

B. J. DiSANTO
